I. Introduction to wealth

Like development, wealth is a state of mind. Poverty is also a mindset. Is poor only who believes he's poor. You can get everything if you plan it well, stay focus and work hard.

Today 90% of the world populations are living far from what they have dreamed. According to Anthony Robbins, if they do not have all the money they dreamed of, it is simply because they have not been conditioned to get it, they are not prepared to achieve their goal.

You prepare yourself to be rich or poor. But to succeed, you must first change your conditioning, your mindset.

If you think you can do or not to do so, in both cases you're right. Because fear is a state of mind too. It always starts with a doubt. However, doubt is the cancer of the spirit, cancer of success.

So, you must get rid of all limiting beliefs. For this purpose, you must focus on what you really want and follow those who have succeeded before you.

Do you know the history of successful businessmen, entrepreneurs and leaders?

Do you know the history of Henry Ford?

Do you know the history of Steve Jobs?

Do you know that the Film and Video is nowadays the most profitable business?

. Henry Ford (July 30, 1863 – April 7, 1947) was an American industrialist, the founder of the Ford Motor Company, and sponsor of the development of the assembly line technique of mass production. Although Ford did not invent the automobile, he developed and manufactured the first automobile that many middle class Americans could afford to buy. His introduction of the Model T automobile revolutionized transportation and American industry. As owner of the Ford Motor Company, he became one of the richest and best-known people in the world. Ford had a global vision. His philosophy was one of economic independence for the United States. He had an interest in materials science and engineering. He revolutionized and dominated the automobile industry. His company has produced more vehicles than any company in the world.

Steven Paulor Steve Jobs (February 24, 1955 – October 5, 2011) was an American entrepreneur and inventor best known as the co-founder, chairman, and chief executive officer of Apple Inc. Through Apple, he was widely recognized as a charismatic pioneer of the personal computer revolution and for his influential career in the computer and consumer electronics fields. Jobs also co-founded and served as chief executive of Pixar Animation Studios; he became a member of the board of directors of The Walt Disney Company in 2006, when Disney acquired Pixar.

In the late 1970s, Apple creates one of the first commercially successful lines of personal computers, the Apple II series. After losing a power struggle with the board of directors in 1985, Jobs left Apple and founded NeXT, a computer platform development company specializing in the higher-education and business markets.

In 1996, Apple had failed to deliver a new operating system. The NeXT platform became the foundation for the Mac OS X. Then, Jobs returned to Apple as an advisor, and took control of the company as an interim CEO. Jobs brought Apple from near bankruptcy to profitability by 1998.

As the new CEO of the company, Jobs oversaw the development of the iMac, iTunes, iPod, iPhone, and iPad, and on the services side, the company's Apple Retail Stores, iTunes Store and the App Store. The success of these products and services provided several years of stable financial returns and propelled Apple to become the world's most valuable publicly traded company in 2011.

Jobs has received a number of honors and public recognition for his influence in the technology and music industries. He has widely been referred to as "legendary", a "futurist" or simply "visionary", and has been described as the "Father of the Digital Revolution", a "master of innovation", and a "design perfectionist".

The Film and Movie industry has also produced its millionaires.

So far, we've seen some smart and famous entrepreneurs succeeding offline. What about online entrepreneurship? What are the possible ways of making money online?

II. Can Anyone Make Money Online?

Working online is supposed to be great, right? Okay, I agree for the most part it is great. However, I want to share today some truths about making money online.

No dough with an online business, you can:

- Work from anywhere
- Work while you travel
- Make a great income

Many people like to think that owning your own business, making lots of money, and working online in a certain way means that you have expensive cars, only travel first class, and so on.

Due to this, I have had people tell me that there's no way that my business is doing as well as it is, or that I'm making as much money as I am. Well, let me tell you, that's because running your own business and making money online isn't always the way people make it seem.

So, be careful. Just because it's possible for people to make money online doesn't necessarily mean it's possible for you to make money online. There's an important difference there.

A lot of people like to say that anyone can do this as long as they have the dream and the ambition to make it happen, but here's the truth: it's not easy making money online today. With so much competition, generating any respectable amount of income through the web has become an increasing challenge. A lot of people who try to make money online end up making zero dollars.

In a sense, everyone has the potential to do it, but not everyone can realize that potential. Making money online is neither easy nor simple. Not only does it require a lot of work and effort, but also it can be very demoralizing. You need a certain level of self-driven mindset to succeed.

Moreover, you need skills. Not that you have to be an expert, but you need to be able to deliver something that someone will be willing to pay for. Your skill might be graphic design, coding, web development, photography, computer repair, teaching, or whatever else, but you can't make money if you have nothing to offer.

Well, let me make it clear. There are ways you can make money even if you have no special skills. However, even after you've mastered these skills, you'll have trouble earning more than a few hundred dollars a month. For example, you can actually earn money by taking online surveys.

What I really mean is, if you want to make a living online, you'll need at least one marketable skill. Fortunately, if you don't think you're good enough, you can always train by enrolling in self-improvement courses. It's never too late for that! And don't forget to take advantage of Udemy as a way to find potential courses that fit your needs.

So, you can easily overcome your limitations in the long term as long as you set your expectations the right way and use the best ways to make money online.

III. What Are The Best Ways To Make Money Online?

Today, if you really want to succeed in any endeavor, whether online or offline, you need to deliver enormous amounts of value. Yes, you have to do a lot of work if you want a good return of your investment in the long term. This is especially true online. Why? Because it takes time to build authority and create an audience, two primary ingredients necessary to succeed in the wonderful world of online business.

In practice, you have to deliver a tremendous amount of value at the outset and you have to inspect every detail meticulously, to ensure that you are doing everything right. So, as long as you keep that in mind, and you don't look for a quick buck, you'll succeed in the long term.

Here are some of the best and most legitimate ways you can make money online in the short and long term:

- Find your niche: Figure out what you're good at or what you want to be good at. You don't need to be an expert right now, but you do need to decide where you're going to fit in if you're at all serious about making serious cash in the long term.
- Build a blog on a custom domain: Your blog is your virtual home. Without it, you've no place to filter all that traffic and people interested in what you have to say. But don't build a blog on a sub-domain like `yoursite.wordpress.com`; create a blog with a custom domain like `www.yoursite.com`. Blogs can easily generate tens of thousands of dollars to hundreds of thousands of dollars per month when done right. Yes, that much. But it won't be easy to get there. However, looking back on it, a year from now you'll wish you started today. So why wait another moment?
- Always add value: Adding value over time creates authority and authority breeds trust, which in turn helps to grow your audience and readership. Without a significant following, you'll find it hard to gain any traction online. It simply takes time.

- Create an email list and treat your subscribers right: One of the best ways to make money online is by marketing to an actively interested group of email subscribers using promotional emails. While most people think that email marketing is dead, that's far from the truth. This is your greatest potential source of income online. Think of it as your most valuable asset.
- Don't sacrifice morals for a quick buck: At the outset, you'll want to do all sorts of things to make money online, but don't sacrifice your morals for a quick buck. Not only will you put people off, but also you'll lose Google's trust.
- Think about the long-term results of your activities: It will seem frustrating in the beginning. Everything is going to be difficult. It will take time. Stick it out and don't give up.
- Write and sell digital ebooks: If you have a propensity for writing, consider writing an ebook. While the market has certainly become saturated today, books that help teach people about a technical topic still sell extremely well. This is a great source of passive income but does require a large amount of effort at the outset before any money is generated. You can sell your ebook through Amazon's Kindle program or Apple's iTunes Connect, which gives you access to a large majority of the digital-book reading market and the barriers for entry are incredibly low. You don't need to invest lots of money to make this happen, but you do need to invest lots of time both in writing and marketing the ebook.
- Sell audiobooks with Audible: I've been in the audiobook-selling business for some time now. I know a thing or two about audiobooks. And, what I've noticed recently is that audiobooks are growing in popularity as their digital ebooks counterparts are becoming less and less popular. People are turning to audio and visuals when it comes to technical subjects. However, you should consider doing an ebook first and turning it into an audiobook. You can hire a producer either through a royalty share program, so you don't have to shell out upfront cash, or you can do a pay-per-hour hire as well.

- Create an App: Yes, this is far more technical. Unless you have the right app development skills, doing this is going to be a significant undertaking. But, apps are also a great source of passive income when done the right way. You can reach a massive audience of smartphone users by building a great app. However, apps require a significant investment of your time or money upfront. If you don't have the skills, then you have to hire an app development agency or someone who can assist you in creating a great app. But first you need to come up with an idea that will sell. Do the proper market research and analytics to come up with the right app.

- Offer gigs on Fiverr: If you have some professional experience in graphic design, accounting, social media marketing, web development or SEO training, for example, you could offer gigs on Fiverr starting at $5 per job. You could perform a valuable service that you could also up-sell to make more money per gig. Fiverr is one of the biggest providers in the gig economy on the web and you can sell a wide variety of services and products through this medium. Do the research and find out what you can offer. However, keep in mind that like any other geek tasks, it takes time to succeed here. And stellar reviews will help you generate more and more income over time.

- Sell professional services on Upwork or 99Designs: Upwork and 99Designs are two of the biggest resources for selling just about any professional service. If you have extensive experience in a field, you might want to consider selling your services through one of these sites. 99Designs only applies to graphic design while Upwork applies to nearly every other professional service. However, like anything else, the beginning will be difficult. Before you have a significant track record and extensive reviews, sourcing work in one of these highly competitive platforms will be difficult. Find the most successful people in your niche and try to model your approach and online profile after theirs.
- Email Marketing: Email marketing is at the heart of every successful endeavor on the web. For those serious about making money online, email marketing is certainly where it's at. But it has to be done the right way. Before you even try to market anything to anyone via an email list, be sure that they're people that subscribed and opted in directly to you. When you try to market to people via email out of the blue, you won't find as much success. But, if those email subscribers are actively interested in what you have to say, and they signed up directly through your blog or site, your success rates will be much higher.
- Affiliate Marketing: Affiliate marketing is a revenue sharing plan that allows you to promote other people's or company's products to prospective customers via your website or blog. Once a sale is made, the company will pay you a commission because they might not have been able to reach that customer without you. So, without having a product of your own, you can start selling other people products or services and make money online as soon as you have a blog or website with appreciable traffic. If you are looking to earn appreciable income from affiliate marketing, you will have to learn the rules. The key part of the principles for achieving success with this method of making money online is that you will have to avoid aggressive selling. Promote products you are familiar with and you are sure will help people. Just be honest with your recommendations and smart with your affiliate links.

- The final point that I wish to make here is that earning money online really is possible and it's possible for you. In the next chapter, we will study some examples of famous entrepreneurs who have succeeded with earning money online.

Napoleon Hill(October 26, 1883 – November 8, 1970) was an American author who was one of the earliest producers of the modern genre of personal-success literature. He is widely considered to be one of the great writers on success. His most famous work, Think and Grow Rich (1937), is one of the best-selling books of all time (at the time of Hill's death in 1970, Think and Grow Rich had sold 20 million copies). Hill's works examined the power of personal beliefs, and the role they play in personal success. He became an advisor to President Franklin D. Roosevelt from 1933 to 1936. "What the mind of man can conceive and believe, it can achieve" is one of Hill's hallmark expressions. How achievement actually occurs, and a formula for it that puts success in reach of the average person, were the focal points of Hill's books.

They were suspicious. They were expecting to be sold something.

Suddenly he appears and told everyone that he would solve all of their marketing problems that night.

It sounded boastful until he opened his mouth and began to talk.

There were 70 people and they had 70 different problems. They were online, offline, even on the sidelines. He touches through jokes, examples and live web critiques.

He spoke for hours. No one left. No one moved.

In their minds was one question: How could one man know so much about marketing.

The evening passed. He hadn't sold anything. People were in shock. People began to ask him more and more questions.

He spent for over three hours until every question had been answered. Someone had videotaped the entire program but got caught up in the spell.

V. Internet Marketing Techniques

The only way to understand Internet marketing is to do it.

Search Engine Optimization:

Search Engine Optimization (SEO) is the process of improving the visibility of a website or a web page using search engine tools (Google, yahoo search, bing, ...). In general a site appears in the search results list. SEO may target different kinds of search, including image search, local search, video search, academic search, news search and industry-specific vertical search engines.

As an internet marketing strategy, SEO considers how search engines work, what people search for, the actual search terms or keywords typed into search engines and which search engines are preferred by their targeted audience. Optimizing a website may involve editing its content and HTML and associated coding to both increase its relevance to specific keywords and to remove barriers to the indexing activities of search engines. Promoting a site to increase the number of backlinks, or inbound links, is another SEO tactic. (cf. SEO packages)

Emails Marketing:

Email Marketing is directly marketing a commercial message to a group of people using email. In its broadest sense, every email sent to a potential or current customer could be considered Email Marketing. It usually involves using email to send ads, request business, or solicit sales or donations. Email marketing can be done to either cold lists or current customer database. The term is usually used to refer to:

- Sending email messages with the purpose of enhancing the relationship of a merchant with its current or previous customers,
- Sending email messages with the purpose of acquiring new customers or convincing current customers to purchase something immediately,
- Adding advertisements to email messages sent by other companies to their customers

Researchers estimate that United States firms alone spent US $1.51 billion on Email marketing in 2011 and will grow to $2.468 billion by 2016.

Buying a "solo ad" process:

- Type in Google:
"keyword" + "ezine" or "newsletter"
"keyword" + "blog"
- Contact blog owner and ask to buy a "solo ad"
- Questions to ask:
 - Can I buy a solo ad from you?
 - How many active subscribers do you have?
 - What is your average email open rate?
 - How much is your solo ad?

Can I get it at $ 70, if I get good result, I will come back to give you more money.

→ 30 000 list and solo ad = $100

→ 10 % email open rate and Click-Through Rates (CTR) = 20 %

→ 30 000 * 10%*20% = 600 visitors

→ 600 * 20 % Sales = 12 sales @ $ 30 = $ 360

Benefice = $ 360 - $ 100 = $ 260

VI. Conclusion

Earning money online is not a get rich quick strategy. So, the only way to make money consistently online is to produce a lot of content on a very consistent basis. There's really no other way to do it without any consistency.

Also, we consider that these people who have been successful have a few things in common:

1. They love their country above all;
2. They have their feet on the ground and head on their shoulders;
3. They know what they want and they do anything to get there;
4. They work with passion;
5. They are given themselves the tools they need to success.

You could not dream of a better life and do nothing to improve it. Do not look away what is under your feet. Your opportunity to become rich is also near you. If you think not able to succeed in your own country, then you can do it anywhere.

Invest yourself or invest your money in what people need. Study the market whatever your way in business, your profession, and your household, regardless of your life. This is the key of success. The best results are obtained by those who take into account people needs before products or services intended to satisfy.

Therefore, to get rich, it is necessary to do something useful, unique and revolutionary, to be accompanied by a model or mentor, train and use the right tools.
